LAS CRUCES AND MESILLA VALLEY

LAS CRUCES TO HAVE AN EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Militia Company in Camp. Holdups on Mesilla Road. Important Case.

Las Cruces, N. M., July 30.—Several persons of the Episcopal faith are taking steps to establish a church at Las Cruces. Arch deacon W. E. Warren, of Albuquerque, was in the city several days conferring and holding services and communion in the Presbyterian mission.

Among the citizens prominent in the movement are R. H. Sims, W. H. H. Llewellyn, W. A. Fleming Jones, R. E. McBride and others. A committee was appointed composed of Mr. Jones, Mr. Sims and Mrs. R. L. Faulkner to select and purchase a site. It is the intention of the committee to procure a suitable place for establishing a Sunday school prior to building up the church.

A Conservationist.

Engineer Earl Patterson, in charge of the diversion dam, came down yesterday afternoon carrying a two gallon demijohn, and upon being questioned about his package said that that was all the water in the river and that he had bottled it up to keep from losing the precious fluid.

Holdup Men Active.

On Thursday evening while returning from Mesilla to their home just across the main ditch from town Mrs. Helen her sister-in-law and daughter were accosted by three Mexican boys. Their cries of alarm attracted two men who were near and the boys ran away, but not before they were seen well enough by the men for identification. Deputy sheriff Eugene Morino brought two of them in Friday and has the third located. A Mexican woman who had been seen with the men during the evening was discovered in the ditch by the men.

BELIEVES MENTAL TELEPATHY REAL

New York, N. Y., July 30.—Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, the well known authoress and playwright, who recently arrived from England for a stay of several months at her Long Island home, in an interview said that she believed the 20th century will be marked by big mental progress and that she believed that there is a constant mental communication between minds.

Mrs. Burnett is the author of "Little Lord Fauntleroy."

who came to the rescue and she has also been arrested.

Prof. and Mrs. Wooten were also accosted, but the men got away.

Land Case Reopened.

The local land office has received a decision from the secretary of the interior in the matter of the contest of Nathan E. Boyd vs. Eugene Van Patten, which reopens this case which has been fought in the local land office, the general land office, before the secretary of the interior and the supreme court, each in turn during the past six years, and which was thought by the public to have been finally closed in favor of Van Patten in September, 1909.

The reopening of the case was caused by Boyd's filing a contest alleging that Van Patten did not comply with the law by residing on the entry during the four year period. The case will be heard in the local land office early in August.

News of Killing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Katzenstein received a message from Socorro Friday stating that their son Emil ("Frank") had been shot and killed. The father and mother and two brothers, who live here, have gone to Socorro to attend the funeral.

Militia in Camp.

Company A, New Mexico national guards, will go into camp on the grounds adjoining the armory this evening under orders. Capt. Dessauer says that he is doing this in order to have the boys all rounded up and ready for an early start on their hike to the Organ mountains Sunday morning. They will leave at 4 o'clock.

The Ladies of the Marcebes have organized a piano fund in order to pay for the piano recently purchased.

At a meeting of the Las Cruces Building and Loan association it was decided to disorganize as there is not a sufficient number of members to warrant its continuance.

Maj. Robert Dross entertained the Owl's club last night. The guests were Dr. C. D. Martin, E. T. Winters, Dr. S. T. Barnhill and A. Heineman.

The women of the Catholic church are having a cake sale today at the grocery store of Freeman and Walker.

James T. Smith, Edwin Eble, M. O. Llewellyn and C. W. Moore are in El Paso today on business.

Dr. A. H. Vaughn returned this forenoon from Denver.

C. C. Hanly of El Paso is in Las Cruces today.
